

TRANSFER AND ENTREPRENEUR CENTRE

What about the application and selection process?

To find out if EXIST-Women is right for you, you can schedule a personal consultation with the startup network (see contact Janina Jericho, cf. info box). Students and graduates from other universities can also apply.

Your application consists of a roughly one-minute selfie video that you send to us (tugz@ovgu.de). We have created a criteria catalog for the selection process. You can find this criteria catalog for your information as a PDF download next to this. A jury of mentors and experts from our university will review and evaluate your application. After that, you will be notified whether we can offer you one of the ten scholarships in the first round.
