Innovation portal Saxony-Anhalt

The innovation portal Saxony-Anhalt is the interface between companies, research institutions and people in our research landscape. Current information from the scientific institutions, research projects and funding opportunities are summarized here. There you will also find exciting news from our research.

The innovation portal also provides further information about industrial property rights and funding opportunities and supports you in finding suitable research partners. In their own data base you find 141 research institutes with 298 substructures, 77 supporters and consultants as well as 505 devices.
